

HÔTEL DES GRANDS VOYAGEURS

Hotel Presentation: The hotel enjoys a privileged location in the heart of the Left Bank, in the St Germain des Prés district, just steps away from Montparnasse station. Embark on a secret world blending unconventional elegance with warm hospitality, creating an atmosphere conducive to unique and unexpected moments. A subtle marriage between the theatrical and the everyday, filled with fascinating and sumptuous objects, the Hotel is the ideal place for a Parisian visit full of discoveries. Drawing inspiration from both the world of travel and the Parisian art scene, Fabrizio Casiraghi is the visionary behind the hotel's design.

ROOMS:

The management and staff are pleased to offer guests a varied selection of rooms and suites of different sizes and layouts to suit the specifics of each stay. Both elegant and welcoming, each room embodies the timeless charm of Paris through a space of character where comfort meets art and design in perfect harmony. Note that 16 of the hotel's 138 rooms can be connected upon simple request to our reservation service.

RESTAURANT

Embark on a transatlantic journey between Paris and New York. Inspired by the golden age of crossings aboard grand ocean liners, our restaurant presents a modern version of the typical Parisian brasserie, with a chic and friendly atmosphere. The menu offers a bold combination of the best of both continents: from iconic French dishes to American classics, with a modern twist.

BAR:

Immerse yourself in refinement in the friendly and elegant atmosphere of the hotel's bar. Located in the heart of the lobby, this sleek space evokes the glamour of a bygone era, blending nostalgia with contemporary cosmopolitan flair. Discover inventive interpretations of classic cocktails, timeless staples, and a captivating selection of wines, bubbles, and spirits in the company of other guests and local patrons. Dynamic by day and enchanting by night, the iconic horseshoe-shaped counter is the perfect place to meet, share, or simply enjoy the pleasure of your own company.

GCTA

WWW.GLOCOTA.COM

MEETING ROOM

Whether staying in Paris for work, leisure, or a bit of both, the hotel and its dedicated teams are happy to provide guests with the services, equipment, and spaces necessary to gather in the French capital. Be it festive occasions or professional presentations, we are at your disposal to make your events a success.

WELLNESS:

Inspired by the codes of classical architecture, the hotel's wellness space offers guests an inspiring environment to reconnect with their most essential self: the body. The majestic design by Fabrizio Casiraghi extends to the fitness room, featuring a unique fresco by Italian artist Assia Pallavicino. The facilities include state-of-the-art fitness equipment from NOHrD, as well as an infrared sauna. Covered parking with electric charging is also available. Number of spaces: 20.'